WAR MISCELLANY.

With the beginning of the year Germany has called into the field a fresh levy of 200,000 men. The levy includes men of forty-one and forty-two years of age. The death rate in the German armies is estimated at 1,000 a day. The loss of the French cannot be less, and a terrible mortality exists among the prisoners in the hands of the Germans.

A military writer in the London Times, after comparing the relative merits of the German siege guns and the artillery of the Paris forts, and allowing for the strategical positions of the various outlying positions around Paris, states that the facts fairly justify the belief that it is by starvation and not by bombardment that the city may be reduced.

The admirable system of Switzerland is shown in the promptitude with which, after the declaration of war by France, she prepared to protect her neutrality. In two days' time she had 40,000 men on her frontiers, of all arms of the service, and in one week, if necessary, she could have placed there 200,000 trained and educated soldiers. And yet Switzerland has only 2,500,000 people.

For many years Gen. Von Moltke was in the habit of dining at the Hotel de Petersburg, whenever he happened to be in Berlin. Since he has been at the front his usual place at the table d'hote has been scrupulously reserved. His chair is always decorated with a laurel wreath, and no one is allowed to occupy it; and his cover is always laid, just as if the General might at any moment step in to dinner.

During one of the battles around Paris the foreign legion, called "Friends of France," and composed of Spanish, Italians, Russians, Anglo-French, and Franco-American, exactly three hundred took to their heels out of three hundred and forty, when they came under the Prussian fire. English and American correspondents in Paris are patriotically trying to convince themselves that the forty who remained belonged to their respective nationalities. It is comforting to reflect, however, that of the whole batch only six or eight are Americans.

A robust young girl, wounded on the plain of St. Dennis, outside of Paris, was recently brought into the hospital [illegible]. Amputation was [illegible] necessary. "My poor child," said the surgeon, "you see what the hankering after a few francs has brought you to." "A few francs," answered the patient. "I'd freely consent to part with another limb on the same terms." Pressed to explain, the girl admitted that she had been in the habit of taking copies of the Siecle and the France regularly to the Prussian outposts, for which she got three red Napoleons down in ready coin.

The number of unwounded French prisoners in Germany up to the fall of Thionville amounted to 10,067 officers and 303,842 men. Prussia, including the Federal fortresses of Mayence, has 3,011 officers and 217,808 men in fortresses, and 4,915 officers and 13,657 men in open towns. This includes the fortress of Mayence, which has 416 officers and 24,339 men. There are 207 officers and 21,224 men in the other States of the North German Bund, 1,060 officers and [illegible] men in Wurtemburg, 205 officers and 20,419 men in Bavaria, and 8,202 men in the South German fortress of Rastadt. These returns are exclusive of 15,253 officers who are residing in France or neutral States on parole.

OREGON.

Ex-Senator Nesmith has a large number of teams plowing, and will sow six or seven hundred acres of grain.

The West Side says G. W. Jones of Mohawk Mills came near destruction by being caught in the pully of a planer, but fortunately the belt was thrown off and his life saved.

The Sentinel of Jacksonville wants that little discrepancy between the statement of "Jack" Barnett and that of "Jo" Wells, in regard to "salt," cleared up. It should ask Col. Kelly.

A Chinaman was shot and instantly killed near Waldo, Josephine county, on the night of the 11th inst., by W. G. Buchanan. The circumstances are these: S. S. Hanna found some stolen goods concealed in an out house belonging to H. K. Hanna, District Attorney for this Judicial District, which, on examination, proved to be goods stolen from Isaac Thompson, a merchant residing at Waldo and doing business there. The parties who made the discovery left the goods where they found them, and Thompson, the owner of the goods, placed a watch over them during the following night, consisting of W. G. Buchanan and another gentleman whose name we did not learn. About 11:30 o'clock that night the Chinaman made his appearance and was ordered to halt, which he refused to do, and then Buchanan fired at him with a pistol, the shot taking effect and killing him instantly. A coroner's inquest was held next day and a verdict of "justifiable homicide" was rendered.

From the Statesman: Jefferson has become a full fledged city, and its police court is said to be now doing a most successful business. The first candidate for justice before his Honor, the Recorder, that we have heard of, was arrested on a charge of selling lager beer on Sunday. This fact was proved to the satisfaction of the court, and the aforesaid was fined the modest sum of fifty dollars and costs, and turned over to the custody of the city marshal. Now this horrid criminal and the marshal couldn't agree; the lager beer seller wouldn't pay up, nor would he go to jail, though that terrible room proved to be only a room in Jake Conser's house. What he would do was to go home, and home he went, and just to accommodate him the city marshal went home with him, and went to bed with him to keep watch over him until the violated ordinance of Jefferson should be satisfied. The next morning when the prisoner waked up, he found his faithful guardian asleep, and turning the key on him, he left him safely locked up in the arms of Morpheus, and taking the early morning train he came to Salem, and employed eminent legal counsel to aid him in his conflict with the law-makers of Jefferson. We see no help for it but that a drove of attorneys must emigrate to Jefferson to enable the city to sustain its new honors with suitable dignity.

THE TERRITORIES.

There is now but one daily paper, the Helena Herald, published in Montana.

Flowers and shrubs are growing beautifully in the open air at Olympia this winter.

Dr. A. H. Steele, of Olympia, has received the appointment of Examining Surgeon for the Pension Office.

In many parts of Montana there is but little snow. At Helena on the 12th inst. it was but four inches deep on a level.

GERMAN LOSSES.—The losses of the Bavarian troops in the engagement round Orleans were very heavy. It is stated that between the 1st and the 4th inst. they amounted to 127 officers and 2,868 men, and between the 5th and 10th 96 officers and 1,100 men, making together 223 officers and 4,968 men. This explains why the Bavarian Division has been ordered to rest at Orleans for the present. The Prussian lists of losses during the war, as far as they have hitherto been published, give the following results: Killed and wounded, 12 Generals, 206 staff officers, 2,691 subalterns, 900 ensigns, etc., 5,384 sergeants, sub-officers and trumpeters, three chaplains, 100 surgeons and hospital attendants, 53,511 corporals, musicians and privates; missing, one staff officer, 25 subalterns, 15 ensigns, etc., 198 sub-officers, five surgeons, etc., 6858 privates. This gives a total loss of 2,935 officers and 67,012 men for the 12 Prussian army corps, the Landwehr, and the Baden Division.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., Jan. 9, 1871.

STRANGE FREAKS OF NATURE—TWO-HEADED GIRL, ETC.

Four of the most remarkable and wonderful human beings in the world have been on exhibition here during the past week. Their names are Miss Ann H. Swan, Madame Halleau, Martin Van Buren Bates and Miss Millie Chrissie.

MISS SWAN

is the famous Nova Scotian Giantess who, during the past summer, was on exhibition in Oregon and California with General Joseph Bohn, hence she requires no description from me.

MADAM HALLEAN,

the renowned American bearded lady. She was born in Wyoming county, New York, and is twenty-four years old. She has handsome whiskers which extend from her ears around below her chin. They are as black as jet and as soft as silk. They are truly handsome, and she says they commenced growing when she was at the age of 14 years, and that she has never been shaven.

CAPTAIN BATES

resembles in size and hight, very much, Mons. Joseph Bohn, but he is a much better looking man. He was born in Kentucky, 70 miles east of Lexington, and is only 23 years of age. He is upwards of eight feet high, and weighs 478 pounds. He is without doubt, the largest and most symmetrically formed man that has ever appeared on this Continent. The girls say, "Oh! how handsome he is!"

is a wonderful two-headed girl. She is now upwards of 18 years of age; was born a slave in Columbus county, North Carolina. She has a mulatto complexion, with two separate and well developed heads, two separate and distinct sets of arms and [illegible], all of which [illegible] into one body—[illegible] but one person physically, with four legs, four [illegible], two mouths, two hearts and two sets of digestive organs. She was examined on Saturday last by the Professors of the [illegible] Medical College in this city and Dr. [illegible]. They state that she has but one [illegible], and that the remainder of the anatomical structure of the lower part of the body [illegible] not [illegible] like the other parts. [illegible] presents the strangest instance of [illegible] and duality of person ever known. The professional gentlemen who made the examination here, are among the most noted in the country for character and attainments, and entirely above the trick of attempting to deceive. I have seen her with my own eyes and have no doubt of the correctness of their statements.

She talks, sings sweetly, and eats and drinks with both heads. Sings one air with one head and another with the other; talks on different subjects at the same time; dances the polka and various other dances gracefully; walks with two or four legs; converses with two persons on different subjects, fluently, at the same time; is intelligent and pleasing in conversation, and has a fine, happy disposition. She has no repulsive look, but on the contrary, is a very good looking and interesting girl. She is well educated, reads fluently and writes a legible hand with both right hands. History gives no account of such a being living an hour after its birth. She is the most astonishing, remarkable and interesting freak of nature ever seen on earth, far more surprising and wonderful than the Siamese twins or the Hungarian sisters.

I send photographs of her to the Oregon State Library, the Portland Library, the OREGONIAN and the Oregon Sentinel, where those who desire can see a miniature picture of this singular being.

She sails for Europe on the 16th inst. She will visit all the important cities in Ireland, Scotland and England, and the continent, also the royal family of Great Britain, and the crowned heads of Europe.

CONGRESSIONAL—THE SOUTH.

The President sent to the Senate to-day a reply to Senator Morton's resolution, making inquiries about the condition of the South, where the laws have been resisted. It is a valuable document. In Texas and Kentucky there is more lawlessness now than at any time since the war. In Alabama, North Carolina and Tennessee, the ex-rebels have the supreme control. It is believed that there is an organization like the Ku-Klux Klan recently organized to kill and murder loyal men.

OREGON MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Smith introduced to-day in the House the memorials and resolutions of the last Oregon Legislature. They were referred to the appropriate committees. When read they will have about as much influence as a bag of wind from the west.

IN THE SUPREME COURT

to-day the arguments were commenced in the railroad cases which involve the question of the power of counties to tax the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in West Virginia.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Akerman has returned from Georgia and was in his office this morning. He flatly contradicts the reports that he was in bad health and that he intended to resign. He was never in better health, and says he has no idea of resigning.

JOHN A. SIMMS

has been nominated by the President, on the recommendation of the Catholic Board of Missionaries, for Indian Agent at Umatilla, Oregon.

OREGON IMPROVEMENTS.

The improvement of the Wallamet and Umpqua was under consideration before the Committee on Commerce of the House to-day. Mr. Smith pressed these appropriations; but the committee came to no conclusion on the ground that the report of the survey and report of Gen. Williamson had not yet arrived. The committee will take them up again when the report arrives.

PORTLAND CUSTOM HOUSE.

The contract for the stone work of the Portland Custom House has arrived here, and Mr. Mullett has addressed a note to Senators Corbett and Williams expressing a desire to see them on the subject.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Senator Corbett introduced to-day a bill to increase the salaries of the judges of Idaho to $4,000.

Mr. Ben Holladay has arrived, and has a house on H street, No. 1414.

Mr. Williams, from the Committee on Public Lands, made a favorable report on the donation act of Oregon and Washington Territory so as to allow grants to issue to those who made bona fide settlements upon the lands claimed by the Puget Sound Agricultural Company in Washington Territory, within the time limited for settlement by the donation act.

The Senate has reconsidered the vote taken yesterday on the tax on coining of gold, and then the clause imposing the tax was repealed by a vote of 33 yeas to 26 nays.

Senator Williams was the only man in the committee who opposed the tax. B. F. D.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 25.

Dispatches from Bordeaux.

BORDEAUX, Jan. 24.—After the battle of Dijon the Prussians retreated towards Missigny, Norges and Savigny.

In the west the Prussians appear to be falling back.

Alencon is evacuated.

The enemy has cut the railroad between Lyons and Besancon.

German Defeat at Dijon.

DIJON, Jan. 24.—The defeat of the Prussians on Sunday was complete. The troops under Ricotti Garibaldi destroyed the sixty-first Prussian regiment. The French behaved heroically.

Further Language from Bismarck.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 24.—At an interview with M. Regnier to-day Bismarck said: "Gen. Bourbaki is caught between Generals Von Werder and Manteuffel, and must shortly surrender. Paris will capitulate within a day or two, when 300,000 Germans will be released to subjugate the French. I want a party to negotiate with. I can't negotiate without a nation." Regnier suggested that it would be suicidal for any party in France to make peace. Bismarck angrily closed the interview.

It is believed that negotiations for the capitulation of Paris have been opened.

Official Swindling.

COUNTY OFFICIALS IN JACKSON COUNTY DELIBERATELY PERPETRATE A SWINDLE IN REGARD TO STATE TAXES.

[From the Jacksonville Sentinel.]

While our taxes are high enough, it is easily to be perceived by the assessment returns this year, that they would have been much heavier, if our assessing officer had done his duty and assessed the property in the county at its real value. By defrauding the State, or, rather the people of other counties, whose property has been assessed at its real value, we have lightened our own burdens, and our county administration is relieved from the unpopularity which a heavier taxation would have thrown upon it.

By saddling our proportion of the State tax on other counties whose property has been fairly assessed at its true value, we are enabled to furnish our county government the "hobby" of economy to talk about, and compare our better condition with that of the "tax-ridden" people of other counties, who are really paying our State tax for us.

We would not have adverted to this subject here, at this time, had it not been reported to us that certain of our county officials have boasted of this imposition and swindle on the people of other counties of the State.

We dislike high taxes as much as any one, but we are decidedly in favor of paying our just and honest proportion to the support of the State government, and let the economy or expensiveness of the county government stand on its own bottom. And we are decidedly opposed to having the character of the people of this county for honesty and justice compromised, in order that our county managers may acquire reputations for economical and skillful management of our county interests which they have not merited.

Here are some rather extraordinary proceedings in Texas—that is, if they are to be regarded in any respect as judicial. First, a gentleman of the bar, by name Williams, shoots a State Senator. Judge and Sheriff, with a posse, go to arrest the Senator-shooter, whereupon he shoots the Judge. Finally, this lively malefactor is himself shot by a constable, and the case may be considered as closed. It quite reminds one of the sanguinary finale of "Hamlet," but it is altogether a matter of taste whether this method of adjudicating matters can be considered an improvement on the old-fashioned jury trials.

Seward and Thad. Stevens.

BELIEVERS IN "MANIFEST DESTINY."—HOW THEY BOTH FAVORED THE ACQUISITION OF SAN DOMINGO.

[Wash. Cor. (Jan. 8th) of the New York Herald.]

While Wm. H. Seward was Secretary of State he had a mania for annexing the entire West Indies. The spasm was strong upon him just before the close of Andy Johnson's administration. One day he jumped into his carriage and drove up to Old Thad Stevens' residence on Capitol Hill. At that time Old Thad was chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations. He, too, was a manifest destiny man. He had a great idea of extending the flag of the United States over the whole Continent. Seward knew this. It was one of the [illegible] upon which Thad was [illegible] the time Mr. Seward visited [illegible], there was a slight [illegible] between them. Old Thad [illegible] denunciations of [illegible] all con[illegible] slighted in [illegible] man wondered what the Premier was after. He was [illegible]. When Seward entered [illegible] you have [illegible] of Mr. [illegible] don't care [illegible] to talk with [illegible] know we will [illegible] man, and [illegible] doctrine, [illegible] in it [illegible] in advance. Seward then proceeded to say that he [illegible] down to St. Domingo with a [illegible] that island.

"[illegible] that point," said Old Thad, "What do you want?"

"I want," said Seward, "to have you put an appropriation of $2,000,000 into the Diplomatic [illegible] Appropriation bill. Don't [illegible] explanation [illegible]. Say it is necessary [illegible] and put it through."

[illegible] said [illegible] Thad and he did. [illegible] appropriation [illegible] on after, Seward [illegible] Admiral Porter, started [illegible] the West Indies. They [illegible] with them $[illegible] West India [illegible] well [illegible] anything. When Gen. Babcock went to St. Domingo he took the [illegible] of this Seward Stevens fund [illegible] with which he leased the Bay of Samana. This fund is now exhausted.

A Portrait of Mr. Sumner.

[illegible] article from the Milwaukee [illegible] Mr. Sumner is handsomely photographed:

[illegible] which has [illegible] the Senate for many years took place on Wednesday last, continuing through the night and until seven o'clock next morning. If Mr. Sumner intends opposition to the administration and a rupture of the Republican party, as many think, and as this debate indicates, it is important to ascertain what reason he can give for the course he proposes to pursue. It is evident that his brother Republican Senators believe him to be entirely in the wrong, and some of them pretty plainly intimated their belief that Mr. Sumner intends to be a candidate for the Presidency against the Republican party in 1872.

History is constantly repeating itself, and the most important events of history may be traced to mere personal pique or animosity. Wars have been declared and treaties of peace [illegible] to promote mere personal [illegible] or to gratify a personal favorite or a mistress of the king, and it is worthy of note that Mr. Sumner's alienation from the administration has proceeded from causes equally [illegible] of respect.

Mr. Sumner is in many respects a great man, and has rendered great service in the [illegible] liberty and humanity. And the fact [illegible] remarkable [illegible] is a fact, that, in official and social intercourse, he is the most overbearing and tyrannical man on earth. His [illegible] in the Senate is that of a superior [illegible] has temporarily descended to direct [illegible] affairs, and, therefore, has a right to expect from his associates unhesitating acquiescence and perfect submission to his views. [illegible] Senators knowing his [illegible] and recognizing his past services in the [illegible] his insolence, [illegible] strange [illegible] Grant is a [illegible] pursues [illegible] and while he [illegible] with great respect to the advice of Mr. Sumner, he [illegible] to submit to his dictation.

"The Major Excommunication."

[illegible] controversy through the [illegible] of the "Major Excommunication" [illegible] Roman Catholic Church. [illegible] Monitor attacked the [illegible] with some asperity because the [illegible] published a certain document that has recently been going the rounds of the press; whereat the Union thus retorts:

The Monitor says: "Any Catholic reading the [Victor Emanuel] [illegible] would know at once that [illegible] never came from Pius [illegible] predecessors in the Holy See." [illegible] that article has any shame about [illegible] that he may feel a little tingle [illegible] as he reads the following portion of the excommunication fulminated against Louis of Bavaria in 1346 by Pope Clement VI., thus translated by Milman in his "History of Latin Christianity" (Vol. VII., p. 144):

> We humbly implore the Divine Power to confute the madness and crush the pride of the aforesaid Louis; to cast him down by the might of the Lord's right hand: to deliver him into the hands of his enemies and those that persecute him! Let the unforeseen snare fall upon him! Be he accursed in his going out and his coming in! The Lord strike him with madness and blindness and fury! May the Heavens rain lightning upon him! May the wrath of Almighty God, and the blessed Apostles, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, turn against him in this world and in the world to come! May the whole world war upon him! May the earth open and swallow him up quick! May his name be blotted out in his own generation, his memory perish from the earth! May the elements be against him, his dwelling be desolate! The merits of all the saints at rest confound him, and execute vengeance on him in this life? Be his sons cast forth from homes and delivered before his eyes into the hands of his enemies.

The Commission on Penitentiary Accounts

Quite a commotion exists just now at the State Capital It is all along o that Penitentiary Commission It appears that this Commission has been cutting down some of the State warrants pretty extensively, and this has alarmed many of the most excellent and reliable Democrats in the State The proceedings of the Commission have developed the fact that most of the warrants are held by our Democratic brethren, who have been speculating in and shaving them to a remarkable extent and now they want them paid at their face! They demand all that is nominated in the bond and propose to try whether they cannot make the Treasurer plank down the cash

In order that our Democratic brethren may get at the matter so as to obtain their cash without further delay, it is proposed, as we learn, to make application to the Judge of the Third Judicial District for a writ of mandamus, ordering the Treasurer to pay these warrants in full, as they may be presented In this proceeding a question will be raised as to the constitutionality of the Commission that is auditing and scaling these accounts. It is asserted that the Commission as at present constituted, is an illegal body. The Legislature had no right to create new offices and fill them with its own members, The Constitution expressly prohibits this, and it is claimed that this case falls within the prohibition Steps are being [illegible] to obtain a judicial decision on this [illegible] on and it is believed that the Commis- [illegible] and all its works will be swept away [illegible] dings demanded by the Demo- [illegible], who want their money [illegible] contend for it.

[illegible] question which just now is agitating the pu[illegible] mind at the Capital of the [illegible] [illegible] is felt on the part of our [illegible] who have bought up at [illegible] on the penitentiary fund, [illegible] abolishing this Commission [illegible] trying to abolish their claims [illegible] wait now for the next act in the play. It [illegible] who hold the majority [illegible] is good sound Demo- [illegible] threatened with most loss [illegible] agency of the Commission The [illegible] of this fact puts a new face [illegible] the affair and, to the Democratic mind [illegible] the appointment of the Commission a [illegible] mistake It was believed that the [illegible] would catch these warrants in [illegible] Reds," and the discovery of [illegible] raising quite a commotion We [illegible] Commission will go on with the [illegible] process We can stand it if our esteemed friends, the Democratic scrip holders [illegible]

An Excellent Work.

We have heretofore adverted to the energetic work which [illegible] Salomon, of Washington Territory is doing in the matter of bringing immigration to this region When he was appointed Governor he gave a promise that [illegible] would bring three [illegible] families to Washington Territory and Oregon He has already brought more than this number His efforts have been successful beyond those of any other man who has attempted to induce immigration into this section of country Those whom he has induced to come are instrumental in attracting others and numbers are continually arriving He is now going East to organize a still greater movement [illegible] that it is his purpose to bring out [illegible] thousand families during the present year and we are not permitted to doubt that he will accomplish what he intends

His influence lies with the German and Scandinavian masses who are among the most industrious, thrifty and useful of all citizens These are the very people we need. Their advent here in sufficient numbers will give powerful impetus to the industry and development of the country Gov Salomon is inducing into our midst an intelligent, law-abiding working class, and we need only [illegible] in order to bring about a complete transmutation [illegible] activities and industries, [illegible] to put a new face on everything around [illegible]

[illegible] the work which Gov Salomon is engaged in belongs to Washington [illegible] rather than to our State, but we [illegible] that many persons whom he has induced [illegible] come out to the Pacific coast have [illegible] homes in Oregon, and many more will [illegible] The wave of immigration, [illegible] further, will spread in all directions [illegible] to be congratulated on his [illegible] as well as on the energy [illegible] still evincing in the same direction [illegible] which promises still greater results [illegible] of Washington Territory have a Governor.

The Senate has passed a bill to abolish the Coinage tax at the mint and branches Senator Williams made a strong argument for the abolition of the tax He showed that the merchants and bankers of Europe were buying up in the markets of this country large quantities of bullion and shipping it to Europe for the purpose of making money by the transaction and not to meet the legitimate wants of the trade, and attributed this in great part to the existence of a coinage charge here He insisted we should endeavor as far as possible, by our legislation, to convert the production of our own mines into coin, and put it into the circulation of the country He argued that the theory that the mint should be self-sustaining was not the true one, and showed that it never was the theory of the Government until the year 1853 Prior to that time coinage in the United States was free. His speech was a very forcible one and did much to influence the final action of the Senate upon the bill

In a recent decision the Supreme Court of California held the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to be unconstitutional and void, "for the reason that it was not within the scope of the powers covering amendments, and because it had not been adopted in the manner prescribed by the Constitution" Is there any limit whatever to the folly of our Bourbon Democracy? California will do well not to proceed too far on the nullification theory announced by her Supreme Court. The fate of South Carolina is too fresh to admit of any excuse for forgetting it,

We understand that the Bonds authorized by the last Legislature for the construction of locks at Oregon City, are being privately signed in this city by the State officers from time to time, as they happen to call down, Why this secresy? Honest transactions are generally performed openly and at the proper offices This extreme caution and secresy on the part of our State officials requires explanation. Evil deeds are always done in the dark

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

Capitulation of Longwy

LONDON Jan 26 —Longwy has capitulated 4,000 prisoners and 200 guns taken.

LONDON, Jan 25 —Beust is advised of Favre's reported visit to Versailles

The Echo says No official confirmation here of negotiations for the capitulation of Paris

Rumors in the Stock Exchange about Paris affect consuls

The Garibaldians have routed a detachment of Landwehr and destroyed the railroad at Fonteux and Burgundy

Negotiations for the Surrender of Paris

NEW YORK, Jan 26 —Nothing additional to London telegraph from Versailles that there is ground for belief that Paris will surrender to day has been received

As already telegraphed, Bismarck announced at Versailles that Bourbaki had been caught between the armies of Von Werder and Manteuffel, and must surrender. At the same time and in the same interview Bismarck declared that Paris must capitulate in a few days He also stated as confirmatory of this view of the situation that negotiations for the capitulation had already been opened The dispatch which announces this proceeds from a correspondent who has persistently denied German claims of success, and may therefore be considered entitled to belief

A dispatch from Bordeaux admits the German railway to Lyons, south of Besancon, Bourbaki's supposed position, can only be construed to confirm the statements of the Prussian Premier Denmark Affairs.

COPENHAGEN, Jan 23 —The Chamber discussed the budget

The leader of the Agricultural party favored the reduction of the army and said the danger of the small States would soon disappear The War Minister believed the condition of the European war dangerous to the small States, however peaceable they might be, but they were liable to the chances of war, and must defend their independence

LONDON, Jan 21 —The Conference has adjourned on account of the absence of the French Minister. Granville confers with the French Charge d'Affairs before and after each meeting

Bismarck made Chancellor.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Bismarck is made Chancellor of the Empire.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan 26 —In the House, Hooper presented a communication from Gen. Pleasanton, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, relating to income tax, which was received by the Committee on Ways and Means.

A rumor is current here that Judge Otto, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, is soon to be removed. The position has been tendered to a Pennsylvania man Senators Scott and Cameron are pressing the name of Gen. D R B Nevin.

The statement telegraphed in regard to the reopening of the Alabama claims, attracts a great deal of attention, from the fact that steps had previously been taken by Thornton and Fish which was considered secret, and hence its publication created alarm among persons having knowledge of it. Sumner says the report that he told Fish that if the treaty was negotiated on the [illegible] it would be [illegible] by the Senate, is unfounded. He says he has not expressed hostility to any treaty which might be negotiated by the Administration on the question He does not however deny the fact that the Alabama claims question is in process of settlement at the present time, but whether the treaty is negotiated on the basis proposed can't be predicted yet, but it is certain the terms now under consideration include the abandonment of certain positions heretofore taken by the United States, and, if reports are correct, the most important question is the recognition of the belligerency of the Confederation by Great Britain, and there is another question, that the United States shall make no claims for vessels destroyed by rebel privateers other than the Alabama, meaning the Florida, Shenandoah, Georgia and Sumpter.

In regard to the action of the President in directing the Secretary of war to suspend the sale of ordnance and munitions of war in order to conciliate the Germans, it is stated that Baron Von Gerolt called on the Secretary of War at the time the proposition was made to dispose of a large number of arms, and asked that no sale should be made till the Prussian Government could make a proposition to purchase the whole lot offered. The Secretary of War in reply said that the Government would not, under any circumstances, sell to foreign governments. The right to dispose of arms to its own citizens had not been disputed, any more than the right of private companies to fulfill contracts, and that the sale of arms should go on as before the war,

The House Committee on Public Lands and Territories have appointed a sub committee with a view to reconcile the difference between the two committees in relation to the bill to establish Indian Territorial Governments.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 26.—Jno. E Johnson, a furniture dealer at No 135 Fifth street, left home yesterday, and was found dead in Hamilton Square, in the western portion of the city. He had deep incisions in both arms from which he had bled to death. He had evidently attempted to stop the flow of blood as he grew weaker, but failed. A letter, directed to Jno. McComb, avowed his intention to commit suicide, declaring that nothing but an unconquerable inclination to commit suicide, the result of insanity, with which he had been afflicted for six months, was the cause. He leaves a widow and three children.

Hereafter the California Steam Navigation Company's steamers will carry freight from San Francisco to Red Bluffs for $12, and to Tehama for $9 per ton

The fog has not lifted for twenty four hours, and is almost like a rain

Ah Lee, who broke the skull and stabbed a fellow Chinaman on Dupont street, last night, so badly that he died on the way to the hospital, was arrested this afternoon. He once killed a man in the northern part of the State, and served a term in the State Prison

A brewery on 637 Broadway street, was seized by the Revenue officers, to-day, for an alleged fraud on the Revenue laws

Last night a colored man by the name of Porter, a member of one of the African churches, caught the pastor of his church in suspicious proximity, as he affirms, to his wife Porter and his wife have separated, and a divorce suit with its attendant scandal will follow

This evening Captain Silverthorn, of the San Francisco police department, addressed his watch, stating that the report of a beastly affair, said to have occurred on the Sacramento boat a few nights since, and in which he was said to have been implicated, had gained such currency that he was compelled to take some action in the matter. He solemnly declared that he was innocent of the charge, but said that the circumstances of the case were of that character that he could not in honor make an explanation, and he was, therefore, compelled to resign He then bid good bye to the force and left He was so affected that he could hardly speak, and nearly every man on his watch was in tears Few of his acquaintances credit the worst details of the case The woman who is mixed up in the scandal is the wife of a clerk in the City Hall, who knows of the reports, but she continues to live with her husband as if nothing of the kind had been reported

Several cases of blackmailing, or downright robbery, of Chinese merchants, by parties connected with the Internal Revenue Department, by which sums of $300 and upwards have been realized, have recently been reported In one case they got $500 of a merchant on the pretense that they were going to seize his place on a charge of being engaged in a distillery, and in another case they obtained $320 on the threat to make a seizure for smuggling opium The last case is being investigated, and Police Officer McLaughlin charged with being present and accessory to the fraud, has been before the Police Commissioners to day

The Woman's Suffrage Convention adjourned to day, without having apparently greatly furthered the cause At the session about forty persons, of various genders, were in attendance

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The match between Dion and Deery this evening, French carom, Dion to make 600 to Deery's 500, push and crotch barred, $1,000 a side, called a very large audience The little betting indicates all in favor of Dion winning Deery won the first shot, but neither scored on the 1st or 2d inning On the 5th inning Deery scored 15, Dion followed with a run of 42, and Deery with 7 Dion very cool, Deery quite nervous and irritable It will be after midnight when the game is decided

The U S Grand Jury reported thirty six indictments to day and adjourned

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, Jan 26 —The residence of Mrs Woods, below Gold Hill, was entered this morning while she was absent, and $34 in coin, a gold breast pin and other valuables were stolen

M Coleman, sentenced March 4th last to two years imprisonment and Chas Smith, sent from Storey county for twenty one years for killing Mickey Free in 1864 were pardoned to day by the Board of State Prison Commissioners

Eagle Creek and its Prospects

[From the Baker City Democrat]

For some time past we have heard it rumored that the construction of a large ditch in what is known as the Eagle Creek country was contemplated We are now able to state that the waters of Eagle Creek have been secured, and that C M. Foster, U S Surveyor of mining lands in Eastern Oregon has run trial lines and staked out over sixteen miles of the main line of the ditch It will be about twenty-two miles in length, and is intended to have a capacity large enough with the aid of reservoirs to run and sell three thousand inches of water in the Shanghai, Rooster and Powder river slope mining districts Work on the ditch will be commenced as early as April—if the weather permits, in March next Mr George Carter is now looking for a good site on which to cut the flume lumber, and intends to be ready for operations by the first of April—the amount of lumber being about three hundred thousand feet It is the intention of those engaged in the enterprise to have the ditch completed and conveying water between the first of August and September The principal part of the work on the ditch will be let to two Chinamen, one of Baker City and the other of Auburn, who will put on between two and three hundred Chinamen and finish the ditch with ease by the time the flumes can be built The projectors of the work we are assured have perfected the financial arrangements and will safely carry the enterprise through to completion

Messrs Bowen & Cranston, of this place, are going over to select a place for a store, which will probably form the nucleus of a town in that section of the country They will take a No 1 selected stock, full and complete in every department required in a new mining country, Both having had large experience as pioneer merchants of Auburn, Idaho and Clark's Creek, they are certainly well qualified for such an undertaking They design being ready for trade, in the new location by or before the first of next April

C M Foster has surveyed a number of Mineral land claims in that country, under the United States Mineral Land Act—the size of them being all the way from ten to eighty acres, Quite a number of claims, from ten to forty acres, having been located by some of our pioneer miners from Auburn—among them are Geo Slocum, D. Moore, C E Smith, and Judge White

The Eagle Creek country, through portions of which this ditch will be constructed, is known to be very rich in auriferous deposits, it is also extensive In gulch, creek, flat, and hill are paying gold mines, and all now wanted is a good supply of water. When that is secured, the Eagle Creek country will be second to none for mining purposes, and it will be equal to any camp in Oregon.

It is well known here who are the projectors of this enterprise, but as Portland and Eastern parties desire an interest, the matter of incorporation will be postponed, but the work will be prosecuted without delay at the time specified.

The Eagle Creek enterprise and mines are in Union county, and are destined to add largely to the wealth and population of that county. Union and Baker are the richest counties in Oregon in mineral resources.

It is said that Col. Kelly will leave for Washington by next steamer to draw the first installment of his six years' salary. It is not supposed that he can accomplish anything else at the National Capital during his term. There is need, however, for him to be prompt about this, as it is understood that his salary is very heavily mortgaged to pay the expenses of the election. The bill for maintaining the "imports" in Yamhill county to vote for Newby, Shuck and Townsend, and also for "salt" for honest "Jack" Burnett and honest "Jo" Wells, of Jackson county, is not yet liquidated.

From British Columbia papers we learn that the Legislature of that colony has unanimously accepted the terms of union, and passed an address to the Queen praying that British Columbia may be admitted into the Dominion of Canada, in accordance with the provisions of the British North America Act, 1867. It only remains for the Dominion Parliament to pass a similar address and for the Queen to issue an order in Council, and the whole thing will be complete. The Colonist says there is every reason to believe that the 1st of July next, Dominion day, has been selected for the final ceremony.

If, as is claimed at Salem, the Penitentiary Commission is an illegal body, some one should apply to the Court for an order forbidding the State Treasurer to pay for their so-called services A considerable sum of money might be saved to the State by this means

COL B S PARDEE Olympia	Feb'y 28.
REV P S KNIGHT, Salem	March 7

Tickets for the Course, $2 00; Single Tickets, 50 cents

The First Lecture of the Course will be delivered by the REV THOS CONDON, of The Dalles, on Tuesday Evening, Jan'y 31, 1871,

At 7½ o clock

Subject—"A Description of Three Stone Heads, The Country from which They Came and The Times in which They Lived."

The Science of Geology is assuming so much importance in its relations to historical questions, especially to the Creation and the Race of Man that every one should know something of its principles and keep pace with its results

The Rev Mr Condon has given many years to the study of this, his favorite science, and can give more general information on the subject in a single lecture than can be gleaned by months of reading He has made the Geology of Oregon a Specialty, and by his untiring efforts and at great expense has collected a fine cabinet of Specimens, many of which will be on exhibition the evening of the Lecture As a speaker he is plain, consecutive and comprehensive and although he is obliged to travel over a vast field within the limits assigned, yet he does not disappoint by unsatisfactory brevity or evasive generalities Those who heard him last winter need no other inducement to come again; and to those who did not we can promise a literary feast ja24dtf

Held to Answer.—The examination of Thos Glennon for the stabbing of his brother, Ed Glennon was concluded yesterday, and the Judge held him to answer in the sum of $500, before the next Grand Jury He gave bail, Messrs. Thos Stephens, I A Davenport, and C P Ferry being his sureties The evidence of Ed Glennon was taken at his room, under oath, but not committed to writing It was, in substance, that he went to his brother s house, and while there they had a difficulty, in which hard words were used, and a scuffle ensued, during which a chair was broken that after it was over his brother Thomas went out into another room, and when he came back he thought he saw something in his hand He did not know what it was. He did not know when he was cut the first intimation he had of it was feeling the blood running down his abdomen He asked his brother if he had cut him, and then he saw that his brother had a dirk knife in his hand, partly [illegible] in his sleeve

The sworn statement of Thomas Glennon was taken at the court room, and was reduced to writing, as follows

My name is Thomas Glennon; my age is about [illegible] years I was born in Ireland I reside in Portland, Oregon, I have resided here 13 years last August My occupation is a saloon keeper On the day of the occurrence about 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at my home, I intended to take my little boy Edward to my place of business, the boy asked me to let him go and see his uncle, I told him he might, but to use no wine nor stay long. My hour of dinner is 2 o'clock, the boy had not returned I wanted to go home, I went out after the boy at my brother s saloon, I inquired for the boy of the barkeeper he said he had gone down town In searching for him, I found that my brother had taken the boy to my house. I then went home to dinner I found my brother and boy here my wife and Mrs Gilbert were there also My wife being sick I commenced cooking dinner in setting the table, I put it up near where my wife was sitting, and opened the knife box on the table My brother was playing with the boy my wife told the boy to keep quiet my brother then told the boy to go to his mother go on. I told the boy to go into the next room he did as I told him My brother then said to me You white livered son of a b——h why did you send the boy away from me?" My brother then seized a carving fork, raised it up my wife said ' Thomas, sit down, he is going to kill you He then threw the fork across the table at me I dodged my head; the knife missed me and hit the wall I then took from the knife-box a dirk for my protection I then went into the next room to look after my boy and to escape from my brother, he followed me so close that I could not close the door against him he grabbed me and being a much more powerful man than myself he commenced pounding me about the head and face knocked me down on the carpet and continued the assault my boy being in the room cried "Pa, Pa!" I had no relief I had the knife in my hand, and I used it I did this for the protection of my life The child attracted the attention of his mother when she came in she found my brother on top of me and I was bleeding out of my mouth and nose she told me that my brother had the knife my brother had me by the hair of my head and dragged me My wife called for help Before the difficulty I saw that my brother had been drinking and I wanted to get him away, so I told him that he was wanted at his saloon he said that he would go when he got ready [illegible] Circulation.—Hitherto the friends of coin circulation in this country have [illegible] in maintaining coin as the basis all values being reckoned in coin and where payments have been made in currency it has generally been reduced to the coin basis The completion of the Northern Pacific railroad may change all this, with the closer business and social connections it will establish between us and the Atlantic States. The beginning of the end may be seen in the announcement of J W Sprague, the Assistant Treasurer and General Agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co that hereafter all accounts of the Company on this division of the road, will be made in currency, and that [illegible] are for coin they will be reduced to their value in currency Considering the amount of money to be disbursed during the building of the road, this change of basis will do very much to prepare the country for the general change from coin to currency in business transactions which must occur at some time probably not very distant.

Whelps among the Capitalists.—A short time ago Alvinza Hayward went against A N [illegible] in bankruptcy Under the law the affiant had to swear as to his solvency—to his assets and liabilities Alvinza accordingly did so, and among his assets mentioned a [illegible] which he owns in Oregon, such as these:

In the Oregon Central Military Road Co, from [illegible] City to Idaho, The road is fully completed and we will get the title to a large amount of land I have [illegible] $ 20 000
In the Oregon Steam Navigation Co [illegible] at 60 cents 897 480

[illegible] were mere baby figures compared with the total of his California [illegible] The [illegible] which seems to have been conducted on the Jim Fiske style disclosed assets and liabilities to the amount of over $2 [illegible] Alvinza is a whale large enough among minnows

Templars [illegible] Organized.—Mr C [illegible] returned yesterday noon from a tour through Linn and Benton counties During his [illegible] he organized King [illegible] Valley Lodge No [illegible] with 42 charter members and of excellent [illegible] The principal officers are W Burnett W C T Miss A [illegible] W V T John [illegible] Secretary and J M Watson Lodge Deputy M [illegible] Dr Merrick also organized other lodges of which we have no account yet.

From Honolulu.—A letter from Honolulu to a shipping business house here dated December [illegible], states that the Falkinburg was taking on board a cargo of sugar and would sail within a week And the vessel [illegible] P Jordan or Comet [illegible] will follow her speedily with a similar cargo for this port The Falkinburg will probably be here within twenty days Her cargo, [illegible] will be consigned to Allen & Lewis and of the next vessel to McCraken, Merrill & Co.

Freight for the North.—The following is a list of freight taken by the Geo S Wright for northern ports 125½ barrels flour, 48 kegs [illegible] cases hard bread, 42 sacks wheat, 120 [illegible] middlings, 12 boxes apples, 6 cases tea, 2 [illegible] drugs 1 case and 1 box pepper, 1 bale [illegible] goods, 2 cases do, 2 bales woolen [illegible] 255 packages merchandise, 3 tins [illegible] kegs butter, 5 boxes raisins, 1 box [illegible] 1 sack onions, 1 sack potatoes

[illegible]al Emigration.—Yesterday afternoon [illegible] of "Heathen Chinee" passed down [illegible] street each individual "Heathen" loaded with bamboo stick, baskets, household gods and other traps We inquired of a respectable and rather venerable member of the procession, where they were going, but failed to elicit any satisfactory information except that they were going to "[illegible]"—probably at Kalama.

"On a Strike."—The new town clock was on a "strike" very decidedly yesterday afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock it was banging away about every ten or fifteen minutes, upon an average, much to the wonderment of the good people of the city If the hands had kept pace with its tongue it must have got along as far as 10 or 11 o'clock by the time the folks began to light their lamps.

A Deserted Infant.—At an early hour yesterday morning, a female infant was found lying on the steps of the Sisters' school house, on [illegible] street. It was pretty thoroughly drenched and chilled with the rain to which it had been exposed, but it was taken in and cared for, and is doing well. There was no message nor indication, of course, of its maternity

Meeting Postponed.—In consequence of the lecture last evening for the benefit of the German Patriotic Fund, the meeting of the Independent German School Society was postponed till next Sunday afternoon

Militia Company at Albany.—Gen. O F Bell has received an application for authority to organize an infantry company at Albany, under the Militia law of the State, and has issued the necessary order

Sale Postponed.—The sale of Joseph Hunt s [illegible], at Corvallis, by the U S Marshal, has been postponed till Wednesday, February 8th

THE FRANCO-GERMAN WAR.

LECTURE BY GOV E S SALOMON OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY

As announced in the papers yesterday morning, Gov Salomon delivered a lecture last evening at the Court House on the subject of the Franco German war The weather was exceedingly unpropitious, but nevertheless, there was a large, very intelligent and appreciative and once present

The speaker opened with saying that he would not attempt to give much general history, but would confine himself mostly to considering the causes of the war He proceeded to depict the spirit of France on the day of the declaration of war—the enthusiasm and confidence of not only the leaders but the people Their motto was Victory, glory and Berlin " The pretext for war, however, was frivolous It was no better an excuse than that the King of Prussia declined to give a pledge that no Prince of the House of Hohenzollern should ever aspire to the throne of Spain Hereditary hatred to Germany was really the foundation of the French resolution for war Though the mass of the French people were for war and the Emperor, the sentiment in the Corps Legislatif was not unanimous Thiers and Jules Favre opposed the declaration, and the resolution was passed by 246 votes to an opposition of 107 Thiers' opposition subjected him to the insults of a mob He bravely, however, warned the people and plainly told them there was no justification for war measures, and that France was indebted for the war to a "boorish blunder" Prussia, he said, ought to have been attacked in 1866, when it attempted to unite Germany, then a war would have been justified, and would have had the sympathies of the world He declared that now the opinion of the public would be against France The speaker said Thiers was correct The whole civilized world threw the responsibility for the war upon Napoleon and France Thiers, however, was unheeded and the French went to war, never dreaming of anything but victory, conquest and glory, never once thinking that they should find their equals, much less masters in battle never taking account that Prussia, in the year 1866, had passed through an excellent martial school All opposition to Napoleon was overborne, and he became more popular than at any period since the coup d etat Thus far he was successful, he had conquered France Armies were hurried to the front, and it was promised that Prussia should be humiliated in four weeks, and that Napoleon should at Berlin dictate terms of peace

The Governor next paid attention to the bombastic proclamations of Napoleon, his imitation of the style of flattery which had been so successfully used by his uncle, his special mention of French successes and singular omission to inform his people that they were to meet a brave, powerful and practiced foe, his attempt to throw the responsibility of the war upon those who, he said, had made the declaration necessary The speaker's opinion was that Napoleon had not evinced in all his war diplomacy nor in his war preparations, no spark of the genius of the great Bonaparte

He then went on to show that Napoleon had feared and sought for war with Prussia, long before the candidacy of the Prince of Hohenzollern [illegible] Spanish crown, citing extracts from the [illegible] of Paul Cassignac, a toady and [illegible] of the Emperor This correspondence advocated [illegible] war with Prussia—to day one thing, to morrow another—was always the order of the day in France [illegible] put forth the theory that every people must have an object of national hatred and that Prussia was to France, that object. The French wanted the Rhine and to achieve the reconquest of her natural boundaries It would be a stain upon Napoleon's dynasty if he should fail to achieve this This correspondence the speaker said, was written a month before the war commenced and was an index to the feeling in official circles in France, which sought a casus belli There can never be a doubt that Napoleon earnestly desired war It was shown in the Corps Legislatif that as early as June 10th all felt that Napoleon had determined upon war and the army budget was accordingly increased

Why did Napoleon seek a war? Because a revolution in France was in course of preparation, and it was necessary to prevent an outburst of passion and indignation at home, it had become a necessity to unite the people against a foreign enemy to prevent civil strife If this could be done, domestic dissensions at home would be healed, and the Napoleonic dynasty would be firmly and completely established Failure to do this, would be Napoleon s ruin Hence the war

The speaker next proceeded to contrast the conduct of Napoleon with that of the King of Prussia and the people of Germany While the former was deceiving himself and his people with promises of easy victory, King William held out no sanguine hopes to the German people, but told them they must prepare for a bloody war, for reverses as well as victories that they must depend upon bravery patriotism and the help of God. While the French were indulging in frenzy the Germans were preparing for the conflict The people of all classes left their business and flocked to the army Disputes among provinces ceased, and Germany was united While Napoleon indulged in gasconade, King William addressed his people coolly and with due consideration of the solemnity of the occasion, and advised them of the sacrifices they would be called upon to suffer. He and his ministers did not deceive the people. While the Germans were taught what to expect, the great majority of the French people were ignorant of the power of their adversaries, Napoleon while he deceived his people, also deceived himself not only as to his own resources, but as to the power of the German armies. He failed to comprehend the situation, not only in France, but in Prussia He depended too much upon the glory of his name and the memories of glorious campaigns of his illustrious uncle, and made war without the necessary preparation He relied, too upon the neutrality of the South German States, without reason His whole course in relation to this war was a succession of mistakes.

The Governor next devoted a considerable time to the history of events following upon the declaration of war, and in passing presented a graphic contrast between Napoleon I and Napoleon III. Then came the inglorious surrender of the Emperor, the declaration of the Republic, continued disasters of the French armies, the almost constant and uninterrupted successes of the Germans, and matters incidental to all these

He then examined the question whether in the terms of peace offered by King William, he claimed more than belongs to Germany, and in doing so said that Louis XIV in 1670 seized a part of Lower Lorraine, which was then a German province, and five years later, Alsace and other German territory, he took Strasbourg, a free German city, and annexed it to France. Upper Lorraine was taken by Louis XV in 1733 These States were and are essentially German, But of this part of the lecture, a mere synopsis would fail utterly to present the argument, and we must perforce pass it with the remark that the historical facts were very clearly stated, and that upon the theory of the speaker, the demands of the German Emperor seem but just This appears particularly so, when it is considered that Napoleon's avowed object was conquest, and that conquest and annexation are the usual incidents of success in war While on this branch of his subject, the Governor took occasion to predict the eventual annexation of the Canadas and British Columbia to the United States, as the manifest destiny of those countries

He discussed, also, the probabilities of a Republican government for France, and in doing so repeated succinctly the histories of the various attempts of the French people in that direction, together with the intervening eras, and deduced a conclusion adverse to the proposition He paid a handsome tribute to our own Republic by showing its stability and even rule in contrast with efforts in France for self government He said that since the adoption of our Constitution France had had no less than eleven different governments, of which only three were Republics, the others being constitutional or absolute monarchies or despotic dictatories

Of the relations of the German States, of their interior politics the peculiarities of the people and kindred matters, he dwelt at some length, discussing the conditions upon which German unity may become a practical realization This part of his subject contained some goodnatured anecdotes and incidents of German life, and a sort of review of the history of German immigration to the United States, with cheerful auguries for the future of Germans both at home and abroad

In conclusion he paid tribute to the bravery and endurance of the French armies, and expressed the hope that the prowess of the victorious Germans might, in the settlement of the war, be equalled by their magnanimity toward their fallen foes and Germany show that she is worthy of the lofty position she has attained among the nations of the earth

The steamer Vancouver will make a trip to Kalama and back next Sunday, leaving Portland at half past eight A M

The Senator unloaded into the Idaho at Clinton's Point, yesterday morning, ninety tons of flour, for San Francisco

Contrary to our very reasonable expectations, the "February spell" which set in Wednesday, turned off yesterday into one of the wettest rains of the season

All the hotels in this city are running over full of boarders and travelers, and still the people are multiplying at a rate that is almost inexplicable.

AMUSEMENTS

Vieuxtemps' Benefit.—This evening the Vieuxtemps Brothers will take a benefit at Philharmonic Hall The programme will embrace a variety of instrumental and vocal solos and duets, among which is a piano solo, by Carl, composed and dedicated by Carl to the citizens of Portland piano solo, the "mocking Bird," by Carl organ solo, selections from various authors, duet, ' The Frog, duet, "Mother dear, I'm dreaming of thee," piano solo, "The Storm at Sea," and various other performances, sentimental, descriptive and humorous

Oro Fino Theater.—Contrary to all reasonable expectations, considering the weather, the lecture, the skating rink and a party or two, there was a good audience at Oro Fino last evening, and the entertainment went off admirably To night, for the last time, "The Barrack Room," and the amusing little comedy of "Simpson & Co"

The Skating Rink.—Armory Hall was well filled last night with a merry throng of ladies and gentlemen The amusement continues to run high. The hall will be open this morning and evening to ladies and their escorts, and this afternoon to the general public Sailing Postponed.—The sailing of the steamship Idaho has been postponed till 3 P M Saturday.

STEAM WAGONS.—Steam engines for propelling wagons on common roads have been exercising the brains of both European and American inventors for a long time past. The Europeans seem to have made the greatest advancement toward that great desideratum. A trial of one was made in England lately givewhich appeared to satisfaction. The engine had an upright boiler enabling it to climb hills without endangering the safety of the boiler by leaving the front end dry. It drew up a hill (grade one foot in nine) two carriages with forty-five passengers, ran down again and made several turns at right angles. [The account leaves one in doubt whether these latter turns were made with the carriages attached.] The trial was concluded by darting over a wet grass field in every direction, making sudden turns and reversals of action, and then rushing over a straight measured mile in seven minutes. The machine has low wheels, and the engines are of easily-reversible compound order. To offset this European invention, here is another from a citizen of Chicago, tried near that city a few days past. The principles on which this one is constructed are mainly as follows: The application of power directly to two balance wheels, and, after these have acquired a high rate of speed to the drivers. This has the same effect as putting a draught team to their full speed on the level ere ascending an incline—force is stored away in the balance wheels. The engine is provided with two sets of drivers, a small and a large. When heavy loads are to be drawn the smaller are lowered to the ground for use while the larger are elevated. The larger come into action if speed is required. By certain connections the power can be applied to threshing machines, &c. The locomotive moves rapidly and guides "easily as a well-trained horse."

RAILROADS YEARS AGO.—The following, in reply to a letter concerning railroads, was written by Chancellor Livingston, who had been associated with his brother-in-law, Robert Fulton, in the application of steam to navigation:

"ALBANY, March 1, 1817.

[illegible] I did not till yesterday receive [illegible] of February; where it has [illegible] road, I am at a loss to say. I had before read [illegible] very ingenious proposition as to the railway communication. I fear, however, on mature reflection, that they will be liable to serious objection, and be [illegible] more expensive than a canal. They must be double so as to prevent the danger of two such heavy bodies meeting. The walls on which they are placed must be at least four feet below the surface and three feet above, and must be clamped with iron, and [illegible] would hardly sustain so heavy a weight as you propose moving at the rate of four miles an hour on wheels. As to [illegible] would not last a week. They must be [illegible] with iron and that, [illegible] very thick and strong. The means of stopping these heavy carriages without a great shock, and [illegible] venting them from running on [illegible] for there would be many running on the road at once—would be very difficult. In cases of accidental stops or necessary stops to take wood and water [illegible] many accidents would happen. The carriage of condensing water would be very troublesome. Upon the whole I fear the expense would be much greater than that of canals, without being so convenient.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Thursday, Jan. 26, 1871.

Gold at New York, 110⅝.

Legal tenders, at Portland, 90½c buying, and 91c selling.

Exchange on San Francisco—coin, ¼ of 1 per cent.; currency, ½ per cent.

Exchange on New York, 1½ per cent.; telegraph transfers, 1¾ per cent.

U. S. 5-20 bonds quotable at 108½@111 for 1862 and '67.

Rates of interest unchanged, at 1@1½ per cent.

Oregon Bounty and Relief bonds, 85a97½c; State warrants, 97c@par.

As a considerable element of our circulation is now currency, we give the following table showing the relative value of a currency dollar to coin, at the different rates of premium, from one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five. The fractions given are as near as can be approached, without the aid of parts of mills, and for all practical purposes will be found sufficiently accurate:

Prin.	Cur.	Prin.	Cur.	Prin.	Cur.
101	99	109	91¾	117	85½
102	98	110	90⅞	118	84¾
103	97	111	90	119	84⅛
104	96⅛	112	89¼	120	83⅓
105	95¼	113	88½	121	82⅝
106	94⅜	114	87¾	122	82
107	93½	115	86⅞	123	81¼
108	92⅝	116	86⅛	124	80⅝
				125	80

The money market is [illegible] easy, interior bills being paid with commendable promptitude, and the supply of coin being sufficient for general business purposes.

The general trade of the city is fair for the season, not much business being expected during this month. Prices throughout remain with so little change from last week's report as to call for no remark.

Produce, with the exception of wheat and oats, is still dull and inactive. Wheat and oats are quotable as last week, but firm. There is not much doing, however, as farmers have got their views entirely above the ability of shippers, and it is becoming a question whether the vessels now here and to arrive, can be loaded.

Provisions are generally weak at our quotations. Bacon, especially of all kinds, is dull and drooping.

We take from the S. F. Commercial Herald's annual review of the markets, the following tabular statement of the ruling prices of flour for each month of 1870, which may be useful for future reference:

	Bak'rs Extra	Superfine.

December	6 00@6 50	5 00@5 50

From the same source, we obtain the statement that the entire shipment of apples from Oregon to California, for 1870, was 36,550 boxes against 63,800 for 1869.

In 1867, Oregon shipped to San Francisco, 37,700 bbls flour; in 1868, 11,057; in 1869, 135,440 bbls, and in 1870, 140,958 bbls, of which account was taken in the produce statements at the latter city.

LAND DEPARTMENT
OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect. I. R. MOORES,
52tf:dlaw Land Agent O. & C. R. R. Co., Salem

DISTRICT COURT OF THE U. TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed in the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating the disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco doctors.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon [illegible] symptoms, length of time the disease [illegible] have medicines promptly forwarded, [illegible] age and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

THE RIVERSIDE
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION OF
EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED [illegible] to their Stock.

Application for ONE [illegible] before the books [illegible] Shares have been taken.

The following [illegible] will convey [illegible] the Association [illegible]

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This [illegible] of shareholders It will be seen, that everything is so operative, and all [illegible] No man can make a dollar out [illegible] out also making a dollar for every [illegible] shareholder There is no chance [illegible] the property by some chance, [illegible] far below the first actual cost. [illegible] liable to happen in the case of [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this city [illegible] hood, and at East Portland and [illegible] last year or two, it seems hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken to guard [illegible] monopolies of shares No person [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same manner. The shares may pay down $50 per share, [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share payable with the first [illegible] able in this latter case to another [illegible] of $5 per [illegible] Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the [illegible] the holder is entitled to his [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 40 to 50 feet above the water. There is no part of the tract [illegible] of blocks but commands a [illegible] view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is every foot of it, of the [illegible] and adapted to gardening. [illegible] little stream of pure water runs through [illegible] the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or [illegible] in the entire tract. Under all these advantages [illegible] seems impossible that there [illegible] be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a [illegible] each shareholder if he chooses may get a [illegible] as many lots as his shares may represent or he may [illegible] united with the A[illegible] while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject [illegible] homesteads on the outskirts of the city [illegible] discussed here [illegible] "Riverside," just [illegible] East Portland—has already been established. [illegible] tract of land lying a little [illegible] shaped like the letter H [illegible] half mile in length, [illegible] river.

From this portion [illegible] but a trifle above the [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the [illegible] sive view of [illegible] East Portland [illegible] the Willamette [illegible] fertile, and [illegible] tract of land [illegible] with an avenue [illegible] of the H (which [illegible] the east. This [illegible] valley, which is [illegible] Through its whole length [illegible] of which is clear as crystal. [illegible] Association proposes to have [illegible] pipes to every portion of the [illegible]
